NOTICE

New Delhi, the 2nd March 1960

C.No. VIII(1)25/168/59—The undermentioned goods which are lying uncleared at the Custom House for more than 4 months will be sold through a public auction to be held from 18th April 1960 onwards at 3 P.M. each day at Custom House, Central Revenues Building, Indra Prastha Estate, Hardinge Bridge, Mathura Road, New Delhi. The goods in question will be open for inspection on the 13th to 15th April 1960 from 2 P.M. to 5 P.M. each day to the prospective bidders. The general conditions of the auction are as follows:

- The Customs Collector reserves to himself the right to fix a reserve price of the goods.
- The Customs Collector reserves to himself the right of selling the goods in smaller lots than those mentioned in the lists.
- The Customs Collector reserves to himself the right of accepting or rejecting the highest bid without assigning any reason and of withdrawing part or whole of the goods from the auction, if necessary.
- No complaint as to quality and quantity etc. of the goods will be entertained from the buyers after the goods have been auctioned.
- The successful bidder shall have to pay the total amount of the bid immediately when his bid is accepted by the Customs Collector. If the bid is not deposited, the goods will be resold in any manner which the Customs Collector thinks fit and in the event of their bringing a lower price, the difference shall be made good by the bidder concerned.
- For bids open for approval not less than 25 per cent of the amount of the bid shall have to be deposited in cash as earnest money by the bidder.
- In addition to the amount of the bid the successful bidder shall have to pay the local taxes i.e. sale tax etc., if any, before he is allowed to remove the goods.
- The goods sold will be removed by the buyer from the place of storage within the period specified at the time of auction. Deliveries will be made only during working hours and the purchaser will make his own arrangements for transport.
- Arms and ammunition will be sold only to the persons holding valid possession licences.
